

Announcing an AAC Workshop for Service Providers...

AAC Training & Implementation: Getting AAC Users & Families Started with Their New DDD Device

This one day, intensive workshop is designed for SLPs, OTs and PTs contracted through Northern Arizona University to provide Augmentative Communication Evaluation and Training Services for DDD clients. However, therapists in private and/or school based practice and teachers working with students who have communication devices are also welcome to attend.

When:

Saturday, May 21, 2016

Where:

NAU Student Union
Havasupai A & B
Flagstaff, AZ

Time:

8:30 am – 4:45 pm

Cost:

$35 (includes lunch)***

*fee is waived for NAU contracted providers

Agenda topics will include:

- Overview of the current Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) Augmentative Communication Program.
- Using the AAC Evaluation Report recommendations as the foundation for implementing device use.
- Setting up and customizing language systems on dedicated devices; communication apps on IOS devices.
- Access settings for message displays, scanning methods or eye gaze options; selecting appropriate device mounting systems.
- Strategies for instructing the DDD client & family members in basic device use.
- Specific information about product features and implementation strategies will be provided by representatives from PRC, Saltillo and TobiiDynamox.
- Resource binders will be provided for participants.

Registration is limited!

For registration and information visit
<http://aztap.org/at-education/trainings/>

Certificates of Continuing Education will be available